CELEBRATING THE HEART OF AVL: INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT WORKERS DAY

Honoring the people who make air travel happen, one journey at a time

June 25 isn't just the grand opening of our north concourse — it's also International Airport Workers Day. This day of recognition celebrates the thousands of airport professionals, often behind-the-scenes, who power airports across North America, like AVL, 365 days a year.

From the early morning runway checks to the late-night baggage offloads, our teams work tirelessly to ensure a smooth, safe experience for every traveler. This year, AVL is proudly shining a light on the dedication, teamwork, and kindness that define our people. When you see an airport worker on your travels — take a moment to say thanks. They deserve it.
